EDULINK International Campus (EIC), the educational arm of Edulink International Ltd, Sri Lanka, is owned and managed by Edulink Consultants, Dubai which is a renowned company in education and health care sector. In addition to the Sri Lankan operation, it also owns and manages Middlesex University Dubai, Dubai London Clinic and Hospital and Edulink International College Nairobi.

The group’s mission is to provide college and university education in the countries of Asia, Africa, and Middle-east by establishing academic collaborations with UK universities. As such it is recognised by the agencies of the UK government and UK Universities International.

EDULINK International Campus, Colombo is partnered with University of Greenwich, University of Northampton, Scottish Qualification Authority and Aptech for delivering our Higher National Diploma Programmes and Undergraduate and Postgraduate degree programmes.

To strengthen our team further we are looking for a Graphic Designer possessing below qualifications, experience and ethics.

Qualifications and Experience

- Possess a Degree / Full or Part qualification or a recognized Graphic Designing course with an ability to think creatively and produce new ideas and concepts
- Proficiency in Adobe Photoshop, Corel draw and illustrator (CS5 or Later) is a must
- At least one year work experience as a graphic designer in a well reputed company
- Excellent command in spoken and written English
- Sound interpersonal skills
- Preferably between the ages 20 – 30
- Must be creative

Important: You will have to bring your design portfolio when you arrive for the interview

Successful candidates can look forward to an attractive remuneration package commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Please send a detailed CV and contact details of 2 non-related referees to reach the Human Resources division on or before 20th March 2016 to careers@edulink.edu.lk